THERE'S NO TIME LIKE THIS...

What if right now, yes now,
was the moment God has prepared for you?

Let's face it—life can feel like a blur. School, social media, friendships, deadlines and don't forget the group chat that never sleeps. It's easy to feel like we're either stuck waiting for life to begin... or racing through it without time to breathe.

What if right now, yes now, was the moment God has prepared for you?

In Esther 4:14, Esther's cousin Mordecai says something powerful: "And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?" Esther, a young woman, was scared and unsure. But she realised that her place in history—right then—was no accident. God had a purpose for her, and it couldn't wait.

There's no time like this—because this is the time God has given you.

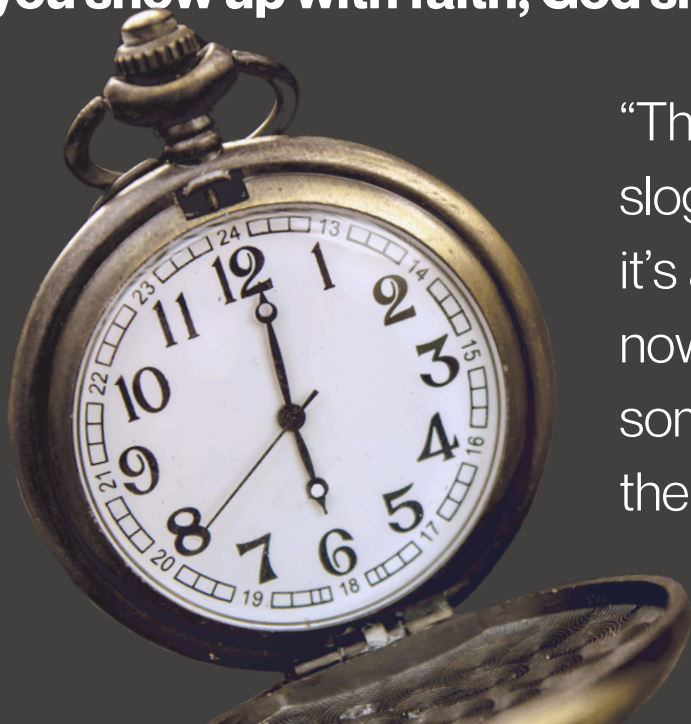

Not when you're older. Not when you've figured everything out. Not when you feel more "spiritual." Now.

You are not too young to lead. You're not too ordinary to make an impact. You were born for this moment. Jesus loved to use young, unexpected people to do big things. David was a teen when he took on Goliath. Mary was likely a teenager when she said "yes" to being the mother of Jesus. The disciples? Most of them were probably younger than you'd think—teenagers and young adults.

God is not waiting for the future version of you. He wants to use the real you—awkward moments, questions, TikToks, the embarrassing stories... He wants everything.

So what do you do with this time?

Live it boldly. Pray like it matters. Love like it changes lives. Speak up when it's hard. Be a light in the group chat. Invite someone to youth. Read your Bible like it's alive—because it is. And remember: when you show up with faith, God shows off His power.

"There's no time like this" isn't just a slogan. It's a challenge. It's a call. And it's a reminder: God put you here, now, on purpose. You've got something the world needs—and there's no time like this to live it out.

THE ACCESS PASS

THE ACCESS PASS is New Springs UK's modern resource aimed at young people who respond to the gospel for the first time. It is a dynamic modern fresh way of connecting with new responders. The Access Pass is a bold, six-step discipleship journey designed to help young people explore, grow, and live out their Christian faith with purpose. Rooted in Biblical truth and built for real-life application, each step empowers youth to understand who God is, who they are in Him, and how to impact the world around them. Through creative resources, mentorship, and community engagement, The Access Pass makes discipleship accessible, exciting, and transformative. This has been tried and tested all over the UK, this isn't just for big youth groups, but is a great tool to start conversations with peers, small groups, in schools; and encourages natural evangelism, and makes sharing the gospel easier.
